We are very busy in Prep with our writing. We are learning the letters of the alphabet and how to write them correctly. We are stretching out the sounds of unfamiliar words using pretend bubble-gum. We make cool experiments and write about them in small groups. This is so I can learn from my friends!