

SINGAPORE

BY TAYLA , SAHASRA, AASTHA, HOMARA

INTRODUCTION

- Singapore has a population of around 5.74 million people in 2018. There are four different languages: English, Tamil, Malay, and Standard Mandarin.
- Singapore has a tropical climate and is mostly hot all year round. It is a multicultural state.
- Their president is Halimah Yacob

ABOUT THE FLAG

On the flag the white crescent represents Singapore as a new nation. The five stars symbolise: Democracy, equality, justice, peace and progress. White representative of purity and virtue of the Singaporeans. Red stands for universal brotherhood.

TRADE

- ▶ The items are iron/steel, crude oil, electronic components , radio and television receivers , parts to motor vehicles , chemicals , beverages, textiles , yarn/fabrics and rice.
- ▶ Singapore trades with lots of different countries.
- ▶ The trading partners of Singapore are China , Hong Kong , Malaysia, Indonesia, South Korea, United States and Japan.

MIGRATION

- Some Singaporeans migrate because they want to follow what they want to do as a job.
 - They migrate to get away from millionaires running their country.
 - They want to be closer or further away from family and/or friends. Sometimes to get away from bad environment.

Tourism

- ▶ People go to Singapore to see: Palawan beach, Tiger Sky Tower, Modern Public Gardens, Movie and TV themed amusement park, Zoo for nocturnal animals, Singapore flyer (ferris wheel), Merlin park (fountain statue), Singapore gardens, River safari, East coast park (island), National gallery (arts).

Aid

- ▶ Singapore gives drinking water to neighbouring countries.
- ▶ They give money to countries that need to overcome natural disasters
- ▶ They help rural poor countries to gain access to clean water.
- ▶ The government gives money to countries in need.

Defence

- ▶ Singapore has a military defence.
- ▶ The Singapore armed forces has tree services:The Singapore Army, The Republic of Singapore Air force and The Republic Navy.
- ▶ National servicemen make up more than 80% of its military defence system and form the backbone of the leader of the Singapore Army Force.
- ▶ They use bloodhounds (guns) to defend themselves and they ride in tanks.

Map

Singapore is in south east Asia.
Singapore is near Malaysia.

